Glendale Seeks Council Candidates

Contributed By Walter W. Cordes | Village of Glendale, Municipal Offices

With the recent resignation of Mayor Thomas U. Todd and succession of Vice Mayor Joseph C. Hubbard to Mayor, the Village of Glendale has an immediate opening on the Village Council.

It is expected that the Council will elect a candidate at its next Regular Council meeting on April 2. This appointment will expire on January 1, 2010, or whenever Mayor Hubbard ceases to be mayor, whichever is earlier.

Any Glendale resident interested in applying for this position should write Mayor Joseph Hubbard, 30 Village Square, Glendale Ohio 45246 or email him at Hubbard@glendaleohio.org and describe their interests, qualifications and include a brief resume.

Glendale Mayor Joseph C. Hubbard and Council to interview Council candidates on March 31st.

In order to qualify the interested party must have been a resident of the Village at least one year prior to the application. Applications should be received no later than Tuesday, March 20, 2007, with interviews to follow on Saturday, March 31.
